Pay rent. Help build credit with Self.

Wisely® has partnered with Self's no-cost rent reporting to bring you a Partner Perk designed to help you build your credit.[1] When you pay your rent on time every month, you may be able to grow your credit score by an average of 15 points.[2]

Keep it simple
Pay your rent on time and Self reports it to credit bureaus[3]

Build a better credit score
Paying bills on time could help raise your credit score, which can show lenders you're responsible

Increase your approval odds
A good credit score can make it easier to get a car loan, an apartment or even a cell phone plan

[1]These services are offered by Self Financial Inc., an independent third-party provider. Additional service fees may apply. Results may vary. An improved credit score is not guaranteed. Not all lenders consider scores influenced by rent or utility payments.

[2]Based on a 2023 TransUnion study customers saw a VantageScore® increase of 15 points on average. Results vary. You may not receive an improved credit score. Not all lenders, including auto and mortgage lenders, use scores impacted by rent/utility payments. Not all bill payments may be eligible. Other factors, including activity with other creditors, may impact results.

[3]Rent payments reported to TransUnion, Equifax, and Experian.
